HAVENS RECEIVES 2006 WILLIAMS TRAVEL AWARD

CHARLESTON, Ill. – Randall Havens, a graduate candidate in biological sciences at Eastern Illinois University, recently received the 2006 Williams Travel Award.

This award, named for Larry Williams, former dean of Eastern's Graduate School, was established by the school to provide travel support for graduate candidates who have had work accepted for presentation at regional, state or national conferences. Havens presented his research, titled "Beaver Movements in East-Central Illinois: Wakes Across a Watershed," at the Illinois State Academy of Sciences' 98th annual meeting in Chicago.

Havens is the son of Dwight Havens of Otter Creek, Fla., and Roselle Havens of Middleville, Mich. He is a 1968 graduate of Rockford Senior High School.
